Long Journey Home Planning Committee

Dear Friends,

Your work behind the scene in helping World War II Japanese American students get honorary degrees has touched the community immensely. The Northwest Asian Weekly would like to recognize your effort in achieving social justice.

The Long Journey Home Planning Committee will be honorees for the Top Contributors Award Gala on Friday, Dec. 5, 2008 at 5:30 p.m. at the Tea Palace Restaurant in Renton. Three organizations, including the University of Washington, UW Nikkei Alumni Association, Japanese American community organizations, and individuals involved would be recognized on stage with a certificate of merit that evening.

We hope you can join us for this celebration. You are welcome to invite your family and friends to attend. Each ticket costs $65 per person; $650 for individual table and $700 for a corporate table. UW Provost Phyllis Wise has agreed to attend.

We have other honorees from the Chinese, Korean, Filipino and Indian community. Each of the honorees has a beautiful story to share. We are proud of all our honorees.

Please let us know if you plan to attend. You may also provide us with a mailing list so we can mail out invitations on your behalf. Also, we need to take your group photo together. Please let us know when you would be available to do so.

Yours sincerely,
